The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thurſday June 21, to Saturday June 23, 1792.

Whitehall, June 23.

THE following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, has been preſented to the King by the Right Hon. William Pitt, Lord Euſton, and the Vice-Chancellor of the Univerſity: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of your Univerſity of Cambridge, in Senate aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our extreme Satisfaction at the ſalutary Meaſure now adopted by your Majeſty, which we are perſuaded is wiſely calculated to diſcourage and diſappoint the wicked Attempts of the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution. We have long, with Grief, obſerved the Promoters of Anarchy labouring with inceſſant Induſtry to eſtabliſh and ſpread Principles incompatible with all Civil Government. But we truſt that your Majeſty's Exertions, ſeconded by your Two Houſes of Parliament, whoſe Approbation of your Majeſty's Proclamation breathes the true Spirit of Conſtitutional Liberty, will give Confidence and Firmneſs to your faithful and loyal Subjects, and ſecure the Obedience of thoſe who might be in Danger of being miſled by the fallacious Reaſonings of deſigning Men, or tempted to riſque new Revolutions, under the vain and deluſive Hope of improving upon the moſt perfect of all known Political Conſtitutions.

Senſible of the Happineſs we derive from your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, and convinced that the Peace and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms depend, under Divine Providence, upon Obedience to the Laws and due Subordination amongſt the various Orders of the Community, we will not fail to inſtil into the Minds of thoſe committed to our Care the true Principles of Religion and Loyalty, and to offer up to Almighty God our earneſt Prayers that He will long continue your Majeſty a Bleſſing to an united, loyal, and free People.

Given under under our Common Seal, this 18th Day of June, 1792.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Receive with great Satisfaction this dutiful and loyal Addreſs.

The Principles which the Univerſity of Cambridge have always manifeſted, and their Attachment to My Perſon and Government, leave Me no Doubt that they will continue diligently to inculcate that Love of Order and of well-regulated Liberty, which muſt naturally prevail in every enlightened Society, and which lead to a juſt Senſe of the many diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings enjoyed by My Subjects under our free and happy Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of Sion College, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Rev. Dr. Kettilby, Preſident, the Rev. Dr. De Salis, Dean, the Rev. Mr. Bromley and the Rev. Mr. Gilbank, Aſſiſtants, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of Sion College, within the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Preſident and Fellows, the incorporated Clergy of the City of London, beg Leave at this important Period to approach your Majeſty's

Majeſty's Preſence with every Sentiment of Loyalty, Fidelity and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

Amidſt the numberleſs Bleſſings which theſe Kingdoms have derived, for a long Courſe of Years, from your Majeſty's paternal Care, that which principally calls for our warmeſt and moſt heartfelt Thanks, is the conſtant Protection your Majeſty has given to our moſt holy Religion, which you have not only ſupported by your Authority, but adorned by your Example.

In full Poſſeſſion of every Civil and Religious Right, and enjoying as we do, under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, a Degree of National Happineſs, Proſperity and Tranquillity, unexampled in the Hiſtory of Mankind, we cannot but behold, with Indignation and Abhorrence, the daring Attempts which have been lately made, in ſeveral wicked and ſeditious Publications, to convert this fair Scene of Plenty, Liberty, and Order, into Tumult, Anarchy, and Rapine.

It is therefore with the utmoſt Satisfaction and Thankfulneſs we ſee the Energies of the Executive Government, veſted in your Majeſty by the Laws of this Land, ſo wiſely and ſeaſonably exerted in your Majeſty's late Proclamation; which cannot fail to repreſs the Efforts of the Enemies to our happy Conſtitution, and concentrate and direct the Strength of all loyal, honeſt, and conſcientious Subjects. We are convinced that all ſuch will cordially join in Support of your Majeſty's Conſtitutional Power, the Dignity and Authority of the Legiſlature, and in the Defence of that unrivalled Form of Polity delivered down to us by our Forefathers.

As for ourſelves, Sire, ſituated as we are in the Metropolis of your Majeſty's Kingdom, and appointed to preach a pure, holy and peaceable Religion, we feel ourſelves peculiarly called upon by every Motive of profeſſional Duty to promote Order, Tranquillity, and Good Will among Men, to inculcate on the Minds of our Hearers the indiſpenſible Obligations of an affectionate Loyalty to a mild, paternal, pious Sovereign; of Submiſſion to Magiſtrates, (the Miniſters of God for Good;) and of inviolable Attachment to a Form of Government, which has long diffuſed amongſt us a greater Portion of Liberty and Happineſs than hath ever been experienced in any other Country.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln, has been preſented to the King by John Fenton Cawthorne, Eſq; and Major Hobart, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln, impreſſed with a deep Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt ſincere Gratitude to your Majeſty for your late Royal Proclamation.

Fully ſenſible of the Advantages of that Liberty, both Civil and Religious, and the various other Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, we cannot ſee, but with Indignation, the Attempts which have been lately made to ſow Diſſentions in the Kingdom, to alienate your People from your Majeſty's Government, and to ſubvert that Conſtitution, which is the Pride of Engliſhmen, and the Admiration of the World.

We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere and faithful Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; and that we will, at all Times, uſe our utmoſt Endeavours that your Majeſty may long continue to reign a happy King over a happy and loyal People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Cheſter, and the Neighbourhood thereof, has been preſented to the King by the Right Hon. the Maſter of the Rolls, late Recorder of that Borough, attended by John Dickenſon, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Cheſter, and the Neighbourhood thereof.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Macclesfield, and the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with due Humility, and to teſtify our ſincereſt Gratitude for your Majeſty's late gracious Proclamation, iſſued for the Suppreſſion of dangerous and ſeditious Writings.

Having been accuſtomed to regard with Reverence our happy Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious and benign Government, we cannot but expreſs our Surprize and Abhorrence of all ſuch Publications as tend to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to excite Tumult and Diſorder in the State.

With ſuch Sentiments, Sire, we ſhall ever feel it to be our Duty to diſcourage and repreſs, to the utmoſt of our Power, every Opinion and Practice, however palliated, which tend in any Degree to diſturb the Minds of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and to render them diſſatisfied with that Form of Government, which, we are perſuaded, has no other Object but their own Happineſs.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the 12th Day of June, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the City of Perth, has been preſented to the King by Captain George Murray, Repreſentative in Parliament for that City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Perth, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, preſume, with the ſincereſt Senſe of Gratitude and Loyalty to our Gracious Sovereign, to expreſs how much we feel for that Attention and Regard your Majeſty has ever ſhown to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People; particularly for the recent Inſtance of your paternal Concern for the preſent as well as the future Proſperity of your Subjects, made known to us by your late Royal Proclamation for the ſuppreſſing of ſeditious and inflammatory Publications.

Conſcious of the Juſtice and Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, that under it we enjoy the full Poſſeſſion of all our Rights and Liberties, by it our Properties are ſecured, and our Commerce flouriſhes, and that by your Majeſty's Protection the happy and much envied Fabrick of the Britiſh Conſtitution is preſerved:

Under a true Senſe of all theſe Bleſſings, which we daily experience, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our moſt hearty Endeavours ſhall ever be employed in promoting a proper Zeal for your Majeſty's perſonal Government.

Signed by the Provoſt, in Name and at the Deſire of the Council, this 11th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Alexander Feſhney, Provoſt.

Whitehall, June 23.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells, beg Leave to return our hearty Thanks for your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation, and to teſtify our Gratitude for this further Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People.

We are ſenſible of the many Advantages which have been derived to us by well-regulated Freedom; and the various Comforts which we enjoy make us reflect on our preſent Situation with the warmeſt Thankfulneſs.

Fully impreſſed with this Opinion, we think it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Determination to concur in the Reſolution which your Majeſty has adopted; and as we deem it highly incumbent on good Citizens to reſiſt every ſeditious Attempt to diſturb the Tranquillity of the Kingdom, every Exertion will be uſed on our Part to preſerve and ſecure the great Bleſſings of Peace and good Order.

[Tranſmitted by the Corporation.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Baſingſtoke, in the County of Southampton, together with the County Magiſtrates of this Diviſion, and the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and Neighbourhood, being deſirous to teſtify our due and grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, (ſatisfied as we are that the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a proper Submiſſion to the Laws, and a juſt Confidence in the Wiſdom of Parliament) beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majeſty to offer our ſincere Thanks for your paternal Care to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of all your Subjects, by endeavouring to reſtrain ſeditious Publications, tending to raiſe Diſcontents in the Minds of your faithful People reſpecting our eſtabliſhed Government, and by ſuppreſſing Riots, diſcourage every Attempt that may be made to diſturb or interrupt that Peace, Happineſs and Proſperity which this Empire has enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government. And we truſt that your Majeſty will graciouſly accept our Aſſurances, that we will, by our Example and every poſſible Exertion, endeavour to maintain inviolate our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State, as the moſt acceptable Means of ſhewing our Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to the true and juſt Liberty and Happineſs of our Fellow Subjects.

[Tranſmitted by William Chute, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Hants.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Majeſty our warmeſt and moſt grateful Thanks for your Majeſty's general Vigilance and Attention to the Peace and Happineſs of your People, and particularly for your Majeſty's late Proclamation againſt ſeditious Aſſemblies and Publications.

We deſire humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, and of our unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty; and that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to prevent and ſuppreſs every Attempt againſt Public Tranquillity and Order.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation the 12th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Delivered by Charles Bragge, Eſq; Recorder and Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and Town Clerk of the Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and Town Clerk of the Borough of Wareham, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Permiſſion to offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Acknowledgments for the late additional Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, evinced by your Majeſty's Proclamation for the Preſervation of the Public Peace of the Kingdom.

At a Period like the preſent, when all your Majeſty's Subjects are in the full Enjoyment of the inеſtimable Bleſſings of Peace and Liberty, reſulting from a Conſtitution become the Admiration and Envy of the World, ſtrengthened and ſupported by a recent conſtitutional Recognition of that firm and glorious Baſis of the Whole, the Trial by Jury, we cannot but lament the evil Conſequences which the late viſionary and ſeditious Publications, openly and avowedly ſupported, ſeem to threaten to the internal Peace and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

At the ſame Time we feel it a Duty incumbent upon us thus publickly to teſtify our Diſapprobation of ſuch factious Meaſures, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady and inviolable Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Country, and to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 13th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

S. White, Mayor.

[Delivered by Nathaniel Bond, Eſq; Recorder of that Borough.]

Whitehall, June 23.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Recorder and Chamberlain, with others the Inhabitants of the Borough of Evetham, in the County of Worceſter, aſſembled at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Recorder and Chamberlain, with others the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough, beg Leave to teſtify to your Majeſty our warm and grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, which to all your Majeſty's Subjects is a Proof of your Royal Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People; and we look with Indignation at the Attempts which have been made to deſtroy in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, all Obedience to the Laws, both Civil and Religious, ſo long and happily eſtabliſhed in this Realm, well knowing the Advantages which, under your Majeſty's Government, and your Royal Anceſtors, we now do and have long enjoyed; and in the preſent Criſis we think it our peculiar Duty to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all Attempts, direct or indirect, againſt Public Order and Tranquillity.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we think it our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Determination to ſupport the Reſolution which your Majeſty has adopted, being fully perſuaded that every proper Exertion will be made and ſupported by the Gratitude and Zeal of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Hands, at the Guildhall aforeſaid, the 12th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Gainſborough, acknowledge, with unfeigned Gratitude, the recent Proof, which the Royal Proclamation has afforded us, of your Majeſty's conſtant Zeal for the Intereſts of your People. We have perceived, with indignant Concern, certain Publications of ſpecious Friends and of inſidious Enemies to their Country, replete with Cenſures on it's Government, and ſuggeſting falſe Motives to Diſcontent in it's Subjects.

Under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign we enjoy, in undiminiſhed Vigour, the beſt of human Bleſſings. Extended Commerce promotes the Public Proſperity, equal Laws defend our Civil Rights, and rational Liberty ſecures our private and ſocial Happineſs. Conſcious of theſe invaluable Privileges, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we feel the higheſt Veneration for the excellent Conſtitution which beſtows them, and that we ſeriouſly deprecate every raſh and hoſtile Attempt to render the Wiſdom of tried Experience ſubſervient to Theories of viſionary Perfection.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of this your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty the Tribute of our warmeſt Gratitude for the additional Inſtance, afforded by your Majeſty's late Proclamation, of the paternal Solliciſtude which your Majeſty has ever evinced for the Happineſs and Welfare of your People.

We behold with Grief and Abhorrence all Attempts which have a Tendency to weaken and diſcredit thoſe Principles, to which we look with Reverence, as the Cauſes of our Freedom and Proſperity; but we feel the trueſt Satisfaction in thinking, that ſuch Attempts will be rendered completely abortive by that Loyalty to their Sovereign, and that Reliance on Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, which, we are convinced, pervade all Claſſes of your Majeſty's Subjects.

We are gratefully ſenſible of the many unexampled Bleſſings which we at this Time enjoy: We conſider them as completely refuting the injurious Imputations, which have been ſo induſtriouſly propagated, againſt the happy Form of Government eſtabliſhed in theſe Kingdoms; and they cannot fail to animate and confirm, in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, their fixed and ſteady Determination to ſupport and maintain our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and to tranſmit it unimpaired to our Poſterity.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous, over a free, loyal and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

George Sloper, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Borough of Clitheroe, in the Moot Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Borough of Clitheroe, in Moot Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for that freſh Mark of your Majeſty's paternal

Attention

Attention to the Peace and Welfare of your People, exhibited in your late Proclamation againſt thoſe ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, which circulate an inſidious Poiſon through the Body Politick, and tend to ſubvert all civil Order and public Tranquillity.

Till Men ſhall ceaſe to have human Frailties we cannot expect a Conſtitution with Defects; but we are convinced that the Form of our well-poiſed Government promiſes, in it's Theory, as high a Degree of rational Freedom as is conſiſtent with civil Subordination; and Experience fully demonſtrates that it is poſſeſſed of all thoſe vigorous Energies which are requiſite for maintaining, without Violence, the due Balance of all it's conſtituent Parts; and that it is ſufficient for the full Protection of Life, Liberty, Property, and what is moſt dear to Individuals; and our preſent Situation, under the Auſpices of your Majeſty, ſhews that it is capable of carrying the Credit, Commerce, Power and Proſperity of the Nation to an unexampled Extent.

Enjoying, under your Majeſty, all the Privileges and Bleſſings of ſuch a Syſtem, we ſhould prove ourſelves unworthy of them if we did not revere, and uſe our utmoſt Exertions to protect, that happy Conſtitution from which they flow.

We therefore feel it our Duty, as we value our own beſt Intereſts and the Intereſts of Poſterity, to reprobate, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, that buſy, bold Empiriciſm, which would tamper with ſo healthy a Frame, and preſumptuouſly apply Medicines the moſt dangerous to Diſorders merely ideal.

And we are confident that we only join the general Voice of the Kingdom when we teſtify our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and expreſs our Abhorrence of raſh Reform and factious Innovation.

Given under the Common Seal of our ſaid Borough, the 12th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

David Swale,
John Parker, } Bailiffs.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Town Clerk, Common Councilmen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Town Clerk, Common Councilmen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our warm and grateful Thanks for the freſh Proof given us of your Majeſty's conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, by your Royal Proclamation of the 21ſt of May, for the Purpoſe of ſuppreſſing thoſe wicked and ſeditious Writings, which have been lately publiſhed, tending to excite Tumults and Diſorder among your Majeſty's Subjects. We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we have the higheſt Veneration for the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and improved on ſubſequent Occaſions, as it connects the Honor of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happineſs of the Subject.

We ſhall, therefore, upon this and every other Occaſion, exert our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport that Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed. We are truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government and paternal Protection, and ſhall heartily join with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all ſeditious Writings and Attempts to excite Tumults and Diſorder within your Majeſty's Dominions. We likewiſe hope and truſt that the Divine Providence will permit you long to reign the Sovereign of a loyal, dutiful and united People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Bailiff, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Kidderminſter, in the County of Worceſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Bailiff, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Kidderminſter, beg Leave to expreſs our humble Thanks for your Majeſty's late Royal Proclamation, and to teſtify our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's conſtant paternal Care for the Welfare and Happineſs of all your Subjects.

The evil Tendency of ſuch wicked and ſeditious Writings as have been printed and diſperſed, in order to raiſe Diſcontent in the Minds of your Majeſty's faithful People, and to create Tumult and Diſorder, we conſider with the moſt ſerious Abhorrence, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will firmly unite our earneſt Endeavours to diſcourage every Proceeding, and to ſuppreſs every Attempt which may be made to diſturb the Peace and Happineſs of our Fellow Citizens, by enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, and thereby maintaining the Public Tranquillity.

Senſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and participating in an eſpecial Manner with our Fellow Subjects the Advantages of encreaſing Manufactures and Commerce, we ſhould be wanting in Duty to ourſelves and to the Community, if we did not uſe our utmoſt Exertion to preſerve and promote a Spirit of Loyalty, Subordination, and Induſtry, from which theſe Benefits do in a great Meaſure ariſe.

Attached as we are by the pureſt Principles of Loyalty to your Majeſty, Reverence for the Laws, and a Love for our Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed in Church and State, we beſeech your Majeſty to accept this Tribute of Duty, Zeal and Affection, which we humbly offer, joined with the ſincereſt Wiſh for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Perſon and Family.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation the 14th Day of June, 1792.

Signed by Order of the Court,
James Pinches, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Acknowledgments to your Majeſty for the Publication of your late moſt gracious Proclamation for preſerving the Peace, good Order, and Tranquillity of theſe Kingdoms.

Senſible

Senſible as we are of the many unexampled Bleſſings which we actually enjoy, we cannot reflect without Abhorrence on the Attempts which have been ſo induſtriouſly made to weaken, in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, every Sentiment of Attachment to that Glorious Conſtitution eſtabliſhed within this Realm, from which thoſe Bleſſings are derived: But we feel the higheſt Satisfaction and Confidence that every Attempt of that Nature will be totally counteracted and defeated by that firm and united Loyalty to your Majeſty, and that perfect Reliance on the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, which is at this Time ſo prevalent in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects.

May that Conſtitution, which we ſo deſervedly revere, be tranſmitted unimpaired to the lateſt Poſterity; and may your Majeſty long continue to reign in Peace over a free and united People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Barnſtaple in the County of Devon, impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude for your gracious Protection, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family.

Your Majeſty's Proclamation for reſtraining all Endeavours to diſturb the Peace of our Country by wicked and ſeditious Men is a freſh Inſtance of your unremitting Vigilance for the Welfare of the State, and entitles you to the hearty Thanks of all your faithful Subjects.

Convinced, as we are, from the whole Tenor of your Reign, that our preſent Form of Government is admirably adapted to promote the Happineſs of Society, we abhor all Principles derogatory from the Dignity of your Crown, and from that Reſpect which is due to the Legiſlature.

We truſt, that, by the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Councils, all Attempts to ſubvert our preſent Syſtem of Civil and Religious Liberty will be fruſtrated, and its Bleſſings be continued undiminiſhed to a loyal and grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Portreeve, Aldermen, the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town of Swanſea, inviolably attached by every Tie of Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, beg Leave to return our moſt humble Thanks for your Majeſty's conſtant and paternal Care of theſe Kingdoms, and particularly for your Royal Proclamation at this Time, iſſued againſt Sedition and Licentiouſneſs. Fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government and the very excellent Conſtitution of this Realm, which has long been the Envy and Admiration of the World, and under which we poſſeſs, in an unparalleled Degree, Freedom of Religion, Protection of our Perſons, and the Safety and free Diſpoſal of our Properties; we therefore ſhall, in our ſeveral Capacities, uſe our conſtant Endeavours to ſuppreſs all ſeditious Publications, Tumults, and Diſcontents, and enforce due Reſpect to the Laws; and we cannot help expreſſing our Abhorrence and Dread of any Attempts to alter the Conſtitution and Government under which theſe Kingdoms do now experience ſo high a Degree of Happineſs, Peace and Commerce.

And we your loyal Subjects ſhall unceaſingly implore Divine Providence long to preſerve your Majeſty's Life, to receive the grateful and loyal Homage of a free and happy People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Conſtable of the Caſtle, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cardiff, together with the Bailiffs, Portreeves, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ſeveral contributory Boroughs belonging thereto, within the County of Glamorgan, humbly beg Leave to preſent your Majeſty with our ſincere and hearty Aſſurances of unſhaken Attachment to your Sacred Perſon. Impreſſed with a deep Senſe of the numerous Bleſſings we have derived from your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, and the Excellence of our preſent Conſtitution, we ſhall oppoſe, by every Means within our Power, all Attempts which may tend to introduce dangerous or unneceſſary Reform, or to diſturb in any Shape the Tranquillity of the Kingdom; and we join our Fellow-Citizens in warmly expreſſing our Gratitude for the recent Proof of your Majeſty's conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffe, Burgeſſes, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Chippenham in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Chippenham in the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to teſtify (by this our humble Addreſs) our grateful Acknowledgements to your Majeſty, for the great Care and Attention ſhewn by your Majeſty to all your loving Subjects, by iſſuing your late Royal Proclamation, and thereby ſtifling in it's Infancy thoſe ſeditious Writings and Publications, which have been ſcandalouſly printed and publiſhed, to inflame and ſtir up Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your loving Subjects, thereby endeavouring to overturn the excellent Conſtitution of our Country, as ſettled and approved by the Wiſdom of our Progenitors at the Glorious Revolution. And we humbly aſſure your Majeſty of the Deteſtation in which we hold the Authors and Publiſhers of ſuch infamous Compoſitions, and are convinced, that by your Majeſty's juſt Interference they will be effectually checked in their wicked Career, that the Bleſſings of Peace and Tranquillity we ſo amply enjoy under your Majeſty's Government may continue, and be handed down to your Illuſtrious Family pure and unſullied.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs, in Common Hall aſſembled.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and grateful Acknowledgements for that paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, which is expreſſed in your late Proclamation againſt ſedi-

tious Publications, and for the preventing of riotous and unlawful Aſſemblies, which are often attended with the moſt fatal and ruinous Conſequences; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family.

We think it our Duty to declare to your Majeſty, that, though there probably may be a few diſcontented Individuals of licentious Principles, and Enemies to all Subordination and Government, to be found in this as well as other Countries, yet that the great Bulk of your Majeſty's Subjects in this Place and Neighbourhood are too ſenſible of the real Bleſſings, which, by Divine Permiſſion, they enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, to entertain a Wiſh for any other Reformation in the Conſtitution of this Country, than ſuch as, by your Majeſty and the Parliament of this Kingdom, may be deemed neceſſary; and that in this Part, and we hope in every other Part, of your Majeſty's Dominions, the good Senſe of your Majeſty's Subjects, and their affectionate Regard for your Majeſty and the happy Conſtitution of this Country, will be Proof againſt every inſidious Publication which can be diſperſed amongſt them.

It is our moſt earneſt Wiſh that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and grateful People, too fully convinced of the Bleſſings which they now enjoy to be deluded by pernicious ſpeculative Opinions of unconſtitutional Reformation, tending to introduce Anarchy and Confuſion, and to ſubvert the true Conſtitution of this Kingdom, which is now arrived at ſuch a Pitch of Proſperity and Happineſs as to become the Admiration of ſurrounding Nations.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall within the ſaid Borough, this 15th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Heretors and Juſtices of the Peace of Argyleſhire.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to offer our moſt grateful Thanks for the late Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Regard and Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, manifeſted in your Royal Proclamation againſt the Publication of ſeditious Writings, and for ſuppreſſing and preventing Riots, Tumults and Diſorders.

Deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we think it neceſſary, on the preſent Occaſion, to expreſs our moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, as well as to the happy Conſtitution eſtabliſhed in theſe Realms, where the Protection of the Laws extends impartially to every Subject, however humble his Station.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments of Affection and Attachment, we ſhall not fail to exert our beſt Endeavours to prevent or ſuppreſs, as far as in our Power, the Attempts of evil-minded and deſigning Men, to diſturb the Public Tranquillity; it being our moſt earneſt Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign over a free and a happy People.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Inverary, this 15th Day of June, 1792.

John Campbell, Preſes.
